International Studies (BA): Global Relations Concentration

Is the world a single, global system? What factors support global integration and the continued importance of national and local-level societies? Learn theories of globalization and explore the limits of global interconnectedness. Additional topics include the role of religion in international settings, ideas of global justice, and the historical antecedents to global organizations such as the United Nations and the World Bank.

¹ C- or better

 Although some courses are listed in more than one category, no course may satisfy more than one requirement. IS majors may take no more than four 200 level courses in their departmental requirements.

• Study Abroad: International major students are required to complete six (6) credit hours of study abroad coursework. Prior to enrolling in a study abroad program students are required to consult with their International Studies advisor in order to ascertain that the courses they plan on taking overseas may be transferred for credit to the NC State and may count toward the major and/or the GE requirements.

Major Residency Requirements – Minimum of 15 hours of international studies at NC State.

Major Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirements- A 2.0 major and cumulative gpa is required for graduation. All major courses must receive a grade of C- or better.
