International Studies (BA): Latin America Concentration

Examine a region of sharp contrasts and rich cultural history. In addition to its European ancestry, some parts of Latin America are strongly Native American. Sixty-two Native American languages are spoken in Mexico alone. Other parts show an unmistakable African heritage. Along the Caribbean coasts of Belize and Guatemala and south to Colombia and Venezuela, Afro-Caribbean people speak Creole languages. Parts of Latin America, especially Brazil, are widely expected to dominate the global economy. Other countries count among the poorest in the world (Honduras and Nicaragua) or house some of the starkest differences in wealth and poverty (Colombia and Mexico). Latin America houses 9% of the world's population in 20 countries. Some 18% of U.S. citizens describe themselves as Latino. As with other parts of the world, when we study Latin America, we also study ourselves.

Although some courses are listed in more than one category, no course may satisfy more than one requirement. IS majors may take no more than four 200 level courses in their departmental requirements.

Study Abroad: International major students are required to complete six (6) credit hours of study abroad coursework. Prior to enrolling in a study abroad program students are required to consult with their International Studies advisor in order to ascertain that the courses they plan on taking overseas may be transferred for credit to the NC State and may count toward the major and/or the GE requirements.

Major Residency Requirements – Minimum of 15 hours of international studies at NC State.

Major Grade Point Average (GPA) Requirements- A 2.0 major and cumulative GPA is required for graduation. All major courses must receive a grade of C- or better.
